

Uganda Update

April 19, 2010

Team,

On Saturday, the day before we leave, we will visit a National Park that has a lot of native wildlife. The entrance fee into the park is $35.00. Once inside the park there is an optional boat ride that will enable you to get up close to many of the animals. The cost of the boat ride is $15.00 each. If you have not been on the boat ride I would encourage you to do so. These fees will be paid in US dollars. The park entrance fee needs to be given to Stephen Milton upon arrival in Uganda. The boat fee will be due while in the park. There is a small restaurant in the park but they only accept Uganda Shillings.

If you have difficulty with travel sickness I would strongly encourage you to bring Dramamine. On the ride up to Kanungu we will have 2 hours on a very bad road. If you like the old wooden roller coasters you will like this. Those returning to Kanungu ... it is much worse now than it was 2 years ago.

Serving God and Loving It,

Rick Williamson
